Canberra's favourite food & design market

Hello 🙌

Spring has sprung — isn't the weather absolutely lovely? Sure beats the dreary weather we've had this past month! Speaking of dreary, we've got something completely the opposite happening in October...any guesses? I'll leave this emoji here as a clue: 🎂

Happy reading,

Julie & the handmade team.

It's Our Birthday!

But you get the gift

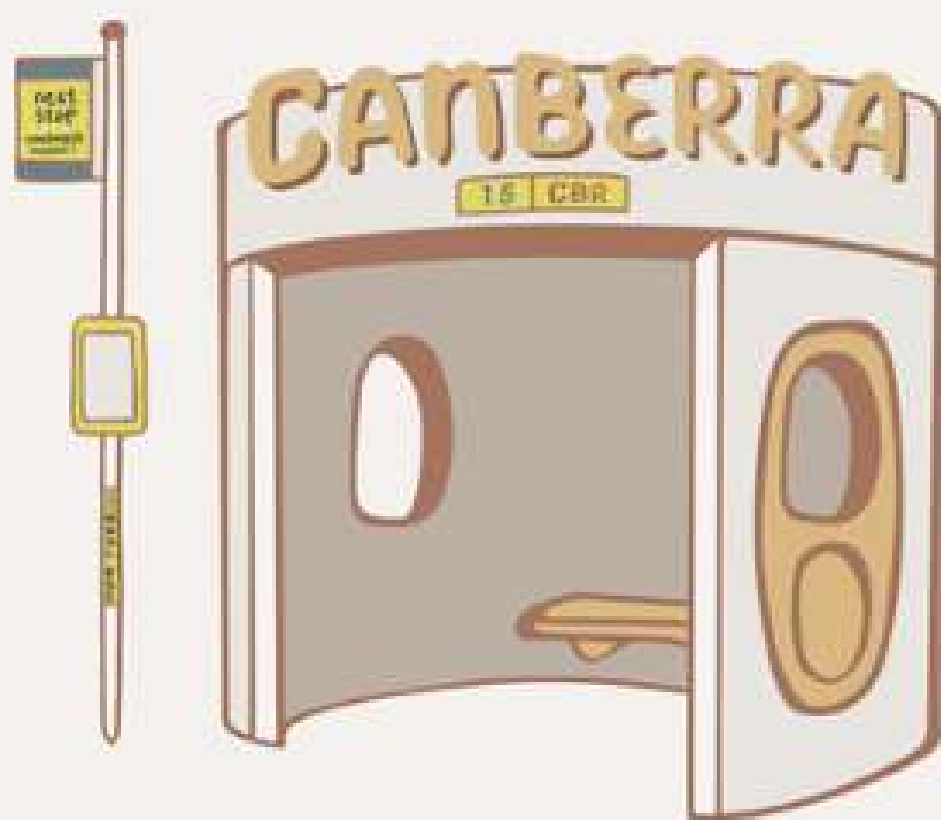

Did you know it's our 15th birthday in October? 🎂 Man, we're getting old! We'll be celebrating at our next market on Saturday 28th and Sunday 29th October. Originally, we thought of dressing up as a big birthday cake and wandering around the market handing out slices of delicious cake...but all the costumes weren't really our style, so we thought we'd do something different instead. 😊

We're giving away a $1500 shopping spree (yes, you read that correctly) for one of you to spend at our October market! Wanna go into the draw to win? Simply fill out your details here to win big. And feel free to send the link to a friend who'd benefit from some Australian-made goodness in their life. While you wait for us to announce the winner, start making an "I really need this" list of all the products you'd buy if you won — our October Market Lineup can help you with that.
